

Digital marketplaces for companies in Ireland

Name	Organization/Provided by	Description	Industry sector	Region	Other information	Link to website
Informbio		inform Bio is a set of tools that have been used to map out primary and secondary biomass in Ireland	Agriculture and Forestry	Ireland		https://informbioproject.ie/informbio-project/
Irish Green Building Council Materials Exchange CMEx		CMEx is a user friendly, digital platform that connects organisations with each other so that they can exchange or trade excess construction materials between them. The platform showcases excess materials from projects where they can be seen, traded, exchanged and reused, ensuring that materials continue to have a value beyond their initial lifecycle.	Construction	Ireland		https://app.excessmaterialsexchange.com/mqUFWBvN/
Food Share Kerry		Foodshare Kerry, an initiative of North & East Kerry Development and Saint Vincent de Paul, is a not-for-profit organisation set up to help local charity groups combat food poverty. We rescue quality surplus food from supermarkets and food producers and make it available to organisations who know how best to redistribute it to those in need.	Food	Kerry Ireland		http://fsk.ie/
Too Good to Go		The Too Good To Go app is the world's largest marketplace for surplus food: Sell your unsold food in 'Surprise Bags', for local users to collect in-store at the time you set.	Food	Ireland		https://www.toogoodtogo.com/en-ie/