

In the 360° reports tab you can follow your own activity level on the course. Also, teachers will see your activity in their own 360° report. Teachers will see what resources you have familiarized yourself with, what tasks you have submitted and how much time you have used on studying.

More ▾

Participants

Properties

Working portfolio

Assessment portfolio

On the More tab you can find for example the names of the participants on the course.

In case you have questions about itslearning, please do not hesitate to contact the teacher of the course. In the first stages of adapting to itslearning you can also send questions to the itslearning main users on itslearning@centria.fi. The main users are responsible for the functioning of and technical issues related to Itslearning, the course teacher is responsible for the course contents.